

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
WILLIMANTIC OFFICE
Telephone 105 23 Church St.

Armistice Day will be observed in this city today (Friday) with schools being closed, business houses shut down, and manufacturing plants not running. The big event of the day will take place at 1 o'clock in the afternoon when Marshal Frank P. Weston gives the order "Forward, March," from Valley street. The parade is to form on Valley street and intersecting streets with the right wing on High street. The formation will be as follows:

First division, platoons of police in charge of Chief Khourey; marshals and aides; Rockville band; Company G, Connecticut National Guard, in charge of Captain Merriam; ex-service men of all wars, including the American Legion; A. C. Tyler camp, Spanish War Veterans.

Comfort Baby's Skin
With Cuticura Soap
And Fragrant Talcum

FURNITURE PRICED LOW
Our prices on new and used buffets, chairs, stoves, dining tables, etc., are always lower than elsewhere. Visit our showroom and save money.

WARD BROTHERS,
No. 45 Jackson St., Willimantic, Conn.

JAY M. SHEPARD
Succeeding Filmer & Shepard
General Director & Embalmer
40-62 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC
Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
88 Union St. Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290 (Lady Assistant)

Comfy Slippers

For the cold mornings is what you need to make you happy.

Ladies', Men's, Girls', Boys' and Child's, in various kinds and quantities.

Brick & Sullivan

738 MAIN STREET WILLIMANTIC
Telephone 591

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.

SATURDAY SPECIALS

ALL-WOOL SKIRTING—

54-inch wide All-Wool Prunella Cloth Skirting, in Roman and awning stripes, in 12 different patterns, regular $4.75 and $5.00 value—SATURDAY SPECIAL $3.98 a yard.

LACE CURTAINS—

White Lace Curtains, valance edge, 2 1/2 yards long, a good value at $1.75—SATURDAY SPECIAL $1.25 Pair.

BLANKETS—

64x76 Gray Blankets, made for import military trade, weight just two pounds, bound single—SATURDAY SPECIAL $1.35.

OVERALLS—

Hickory and Dark Stripe Overall, sizes 36 to 44—SATURDAY SPECIAL 79c a Pair.

DOOR MATS—

Cocoa Door Mats, made in India, of fine Indian Cocoa brush, size 14x24—SATURDAY SPECIAL 73c Each.

CURTAIN SCRIMS—

36-inch wide Curtain Scrims, in white, ecru and ivory, regular 39c quality—SATURDAY SPECIAL 29c a Yard.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Rock executive appeal from commissioners, Estate of William Ross; second, Automobile Insurance Company of America vs. Napoleon Nuttre; third, The Sherwood Disfilling Company vs. Samuel Smith.

Wednesday, November 16—First, Oliver P. Downs vs. Samuel Mailhot; second, Massachusetts Manufacturing Company vs. Albert D. Sayles.

Thursday, November 17—First, Morris L. French vs. Edward Kussel; second, Warren Worth vs. Daniel P. Dunn, et al; third, Rosa Kusimil vs. Maurice P. Jordan.

Friday, November 18—First, Armand Yves vs. P. A. Ralston; second, Helena G. Coomes vs. H. Calles.

The first case tried at the session was that of Caouette & Laniel vs. John Schmolli, all parties residing in North Grosvenore. The plaintiff, a firm of carpenters, seek to recover a bill of $200 alleged to be due on a contract for the building of a barn and repairing a house for defendant. Judge Mathis reserved his decision.

In the case of Adam Gwos vs. William Alexander, a plea in abatement, arguments were made by Lawyers Back for the plaintiff and Brown for the defendant.

The uncontested divorce case of Isabella R. Allen vs. Herbert Allen was heard. The plaintiff told the court she was married in July, 1918, in Canterbury and that she had been ill treated by her husband practically since her marriage. Four years ago they came to the Willimantic Camp Grounds to live. He had often struck her and she carried the marks for days. Finally in 1920, she left her husband and went to live with her mother in Canterbury. Mrs. Hattie I. Hyde, of Canterbury, mother of the plaintiff, told of seeing black and blue marks on her daughter. She had never seen Allen before her but knew he did not treat her right. Additional testimony disclosed more ill treatment by her husband. Judge Mathis granted the divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

The case of Anna Gordon's appeal from probate was heard. Arguments on demurrer being made by Attorney P. J. Danahy of this city for the plaintiff and Attorney Harry Back of Killingly for the defendant.

The case of Jennie E. Humes of Hampton vs. the Town of Hampton followed the short calendar session with the plaintiff represented by Attorney P. J. Danahy and the town's interests looked after by Attorney W. A. Etna.

Mrs. Jennie Humes, the plaintiff, testified that she had lived in the town of Hampton for several years and that from 1917 until January of this year she had kept a boardin' house for babies. She had received, she said, a license to conduct the boarding house from Charles F. Kelley, secretary of the State Board of Charities, but the reason she did not have a license for several years previous to 1920 was because she had been told that the board was too busy to issue licenses. The case of her suit against the town of Hampton was a bill of $100 for the care of a baby brought there by the child's mother, Mrs. H. G. Phelps, of No. 5 West 11th street, New York.

The child was cared for at the rate of $15 a week and she received $235 from the mother of the child. But payments stopped in September, 1920. She has written to the address but her letters had been returned.

She went to the town officials about the abandoned child, asking them to support it but the week before Thanksgiving the child was taken ill and later died. She testified that she asked Dr. Wilcox of this city what to do with the body of the baby and he told her to have it buried by the town. Dr. Wilcox told her to put it in a box and leave it on the steps of the Pitts house. This she did. Her bill to the town for the care of the child had not been paid. She admitted that four children had died at her home previously, but that she had a doctor in attendance when necessary. She advertised for boarders. She had been in trouble with the selectmen and the town owed her $150 on one case.

Henry Humes, husband of plaintiff, corroborated the testimony given by his wife.

For the defense, John Fitz, at that time first selectman of Hampton, told of meeting one other account with Mrs. Humes and of her notifying him of the abandoning of the child. He told her such things must be done and she would not continue to support children dumped on the town. When notified of the illness of the child the selectman went down to the Humes house. He denied telling Mrs. Humes "To do— with a doctor; get your own doctor." The first thing he knew the body of the child was left on the doorstep of his home. It was given a Christian burial. William R. Decker and George Thompson, both selectmen in the year in question, verified the testimony.

Judge Mathis gave counsel notice to file briefs within two weeks in the case and court adjourned until Tuesday of next week.

The Loomer opera house was opened

Thursday night. A crowded house enjoyed the French comedy Le Martyre D'Aurora. The play was in four acts and met with the approval of the audience, which was kept in an uproar much of the time. The characters in the play were as follows:

M. M. Julian Daoust, Le Martyr; J. Leo, Chrysothone; E. Ludger, Le Cocher; E. Daoust, Le Tuteur; John, M. J. Daoust; Adrienne, M. J. Daoust; P. Fine, La Maratre; Jeanette Perreault, Aurora.

Since the closing of the theatre, the new management under the direction of John E. Pickett has completely renovated the interior of the theatre, making it as up-to-date as any theatre in this section of the state. New lighting improvements, newly painted interiors, and other altered stage will make it possible to present many plays that heretofore have been unable to show to advantage here.

The oldest electrical business in Willimantic changed hands Thursday night when Elmer M. Young sold his contracting business to Fred L. Yeomans, who has been conducting a similar business on Main street for about a year. The business was located at No. 35 Church street and was started in 1904 by the Eastern Electric Company. February 1, 1908, the Eastern Electric Company sold out to Mr. Young who successfully engaged in the business up to the present. The battery service business run by Mr. Young in connection with his electrical business is to be carried on by Arthur J. Harper, foreman with Mr. Young for many years.

The reason for Mr. Young's disposal of the business is because of his appointment as a member of the non-partisan state police. Mr. Young, who was among those appointed by Supr. Robert T. Huxley, has been selected to serve in the town of Willimantic and the town of Windham for several years.

Herman Harris, of Hartford, through his attorney, has brought a civil suit against the T. R. Sudd Company of this city to recover $15,000 damages. Harris claims that he was to find a buyer for the property at No. 742 Main street, known as the Sudd block, the price to be $25,000, of which $10,000 was to be in cash, the remaining $15,000 at first mortgage at the rate of 6 per cent, with a payment of $1,000 annually on the principal. For the transaction the plaintiff was to receive $1,000. A buyer was found for the property but the defendant did not pay the commission, although requests have been made. Papers have been served and the case is returnable before the superior court for Hartford on the first Tuesday in December.

Funeral services for Mrs. Joseph Caldero were held Thursday morning at 8:15 o'clock from her home, No. 174 Mansfield avenue. Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. John J. Denney. The body was borne into the church the choir sang Lead Kindly Light. At the offertory Mrs. Henry Mathieu sang O Salutaris, and the offertory hymn, Face to Face. The bearers were Tony Denney, Vincent Lanza of Thompsonville; Peter Mone of New London, Joseph Alder, Joseph Caldero and Guy Demarco of this city. The service was a large and dignified and beautiful floral tributes were received. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Joseph Edward Lee, 17-year-old son of Robert H. and Lee Lavoye Lee, died Wednesday at the home of his parents, No. 13 Arnold's lane of hydrocephalus. The child was born in this city Oct. 23. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery in charge of the J. C. Lincoln Company.

Eugene Lyman, 76, died late Wednesday night at the home of his brother in Lebanon. He was born Oct. 19, 1843. Son of Albert J. and Lucinda Segar Lyman.

Mrs. Douie Legros Belair, 67, died Thursday morning at her home on Jackson street, after a week's illness. She was born in St. Hyacinthe, Canada, May 12, 1854, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sarapant. Married Joseph Belair, a devout member of St. Mary's church and a member of the St. Anne Society. She is survived by her husband, Honore Belair, her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Gilman of Hartford, Mrs. A. W. French of this city, Mrs. James St. Onge of Hartford, Mrs. George Burnham, Mrs. Fred Sheppard and Mrs. Dora Belair of this city; four sons, Arthur, Amos and Homer Belair, of Willimantic, and Edward Belair of Hartford. She also leaves 10 grandchildren.

A luncheon was given Thursday noon by Mrs. Hugu C. Murray for Miss Ruth Taylor, whose marriage with Dr. Louis Hills of Westbrook, Me., will take place table iron, which is readily assimilated by the system, and which is one of the best known blood builders.

Ironized Yeast is pleasant to take, keeps indefinitely, and is packed in convenient one-dose packages. Each package contains 10 days' treatment and costs only one-half cent. True Ironized Yeast costs only a fraction more, per dose, than common yeast, only 10c a yeast, but is much more effective, as it contains highly concentrated, live yeast, which is far richer in vitamins than ordinary baking yeast.

Get Ironized Yeast from your druggist today. You will no doubt be surprised at the quick results it will bring. Special directions for children are given on the package. Made by the Ironized Yeast Company, Atlanta, Ga.

IRONIZED YEAST
Tablets
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED VITAMINE TONIC

Ready to Oblige—John, can you let me have a little money?

"Certainly, darling. About how little?"—London Mail.

Thursday night. A crowded house enjoyed the French comedy Le Martyre D'Aurora. The play was in four acts and met with the approval of the audience, which was kept in an uproar much of the time. The characters in the play were as follows:

M. M. Julian Daoust, Le Martyr; J. Leo, Chrysothone; E. Ludger, Le Cocher; E. Daoust, Le Tuteur; John, M. J. Daoust; Adrienne, M. J. Daoust; P. Fine, La Maratre; Jeanette Perreault, Aurora.

Since the closing of the theatre, the new management under the direction of John E. Pickett has completely renovated the interior of the theatre, making it as up-to-date as any theatre in this section of the state. New lighting improvements, newly painted interiors, and other altered stage will make it possible to present many plays that heretofore have been unable to show to advantage here.

The oldest electrical business in Willimantic changed hands Thursday night when Elmer M. Young sold his contracting business to Fred L. Yeomans, who has been conducting a similar business on Main street for about a year. The business was located at No. 35 Church street and was started in 1904 by the Eastern Electric Company. February 1, 1908, the Eastern Electric Company sold out to Mr. Young who successfully engaged in the business up to the present. The battery service business run by Mr. Young in connection with his electrical business is to be carried on by Arthur J. Harper, foreman with Mr. Young for many years.

The reason for Mr. Young's disposal of the business is because of his appointment as a member of the non-partisan state police. Mr. Young, who was among those appointed by Supr. Robert T. Huxley, has been selected to serve in the town of Willimantic and the town of Windham for several years.

Herman Harris, of Hartford, through his attorney, has brought a civil suit against the T. R. Sudd Company of this city to recover $15,000 damages. Harris claims that he was to find a buyer for the property at No. 742 Main street, known as the Sudd block, the price to be $25,000, of which $10,000 was to be in cash, the remaining $15,000 at first mortgage at the rate of 6 per cent, with a payment of $1,000 annually on the principal. For the transaction the plaintiff was to receive $1,000. A buyer was found for the property but the defendant did not pay the commission, although requests have been made. Papers have been served and the case is returnable before the superior court for Hartford on the first Tuesday in December.

Funeral services for Mrs. Joseph Caldero were held Thursday morning at 8:15 o'clock from her home, No. 174 Mansfield avenue. Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. John J. Denney. The body was borne into the church the choir sang Lead Kindly Light. At the offertory Mrs. Henry Mathieu sang O Salutaris, and the offertory hymn, Face to Face. The bearers were Tony Denney, Vincent Lanza of Thompsonville; Peter Mone of New London, Joseph Alder, Joseph Caldero and Guy Demarco of this city. The service was a large and dignified and beautiful floral tributes were received. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Joseph Edward Lee, 17-year-old son of Robert H. and Lee Lavoye Lee, died Wednesday at the home of his parents, No. 13 Arnold's lane of hydrocephalus. The child was born in this city Oct. 23. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery in charge of the J. C. Lincoln Company.

Eugene Lyman, 76, died late Wednesday night at the home of his brother in Lebanon. He was born Oct. 19, 1843. Son of Albert J. and Lucinda Segar Lyman.

Mrs. Douie Legros Belair, 67, died Thursday morning at her home on Jackson street, after a week's illness. She was born in St. Hyacinthe, Canada, May 12, 1854, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sarapant. Married Joseph Belair, a devout member of St. Mary's church and a member of the St. Anne Society. She is survived by her husband, Honore Belair, her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Gilman of Hartford, Mrs. A. W. French of this city, Mrs. James St. Onge of Hartford, Mrs. George Burnham, Mrs. Fred Sheppard and Mrs. Dora Belair of this city; four sons, Arthur, Amos and Homer Belair, of Willimantic, and Edward Belair of Hartford. She also leaves 10 grandchildren.

A luncheon was given Thursday noon by Mrs. Hugu C. Murray for Miss Ruth Taylor, whose marriage with Dr. Louis Hills of Westbrook, Me., will take place table iron, which is readily assimilated by the system, and which is one of the best known blood builders.

Ironized Yeast is pleasant to take, keeps indefinitely, and is packed in convenient one-dose packages. Each package contains 10 days' treatment and costs only one-half cent. True Ironized Yeast costs only a fraction more, per dose, than common yeast, only 10c a yeast, but is much more effective, as it contains highly concentrated, live yeast, which is far richer in vitamins than ordinary baking yeast.

Get Ironized Yeast from your druggist today. You will no doubt be surprised at the quick results it will bring. Special directions for children are given on the package. Made by the Ironized Yeast Company, Atlanta, Ga.

IRONIZED YEAST
Tablets
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED VITAMINE TONIC

Ready to Oblige—John, can you let me have a little money?

"Certainly, darling. About how little?"—London Mail.

Started Working Too Soon After Wasting Illness

Dorchester, Mass., man had hard time getting on his feet again

"Two years ago," writes Mr. R. S. Collett, of 54 Lonsdale Street, Dorchester, Mass., "I had influenza and started to work too soon. I always felt tired out. I tried all kinds of tonics to try and get back my strength, but without the results I hoped for. At last I got Wincarnis, and in my opinion it is the best health restorer and strength giver that can be gotten. It put me on my feet again and I shall always swear by it. So will anyone else using it for they will soon know they have found just what they need."

Wincarnis helped Mr. Collett, just as it has helped thousands here and in other lands, many of whom have expressed themselves even more enthusiastically regarding what Wincarnis had done for them when they were desperately trying to get back their strength after influenza or other wasting illnesses.

Wincarnis helps those who are sickly, weak, and run-down, back to vigorous health, vitality and strength because it exercises a four-fold influence on the system. Being a tonic, a restorative, a blood-maker and a nerve-builder all in one, Wincarnis enriches the blood, invigorates the nerves, promotes nutrition and increases the forces of resistance to disease of the entire system.

Because of these virtues, Wincarnis has been recommended by more than 10,000 physicians. As Dr. G. M. Lippin-sky, formerly of the Health Department of Philadelphia, has said, "It would be difficult to find a better preparation than Wincarnis for those convalescing after a wasting illness."

Wincarnis is put up in two sizes—$1.10 and $1.90. It is sold in Norwich by National Drugs Stores, Main and Shutequet Streets, and by other first-class druggists. Write for free instruction booklet "How to Obtain Wincarnis, How to Obtain It." Edward Leasure, Inc., Adv. Dept., 400 West 23rd Street, New York, U. S. Agents for Wincarnis.

Wednesday evening next. The guests were Mrs. Walter Lathrop of Myrtle, Mrs. Louis Porteus, Miss Mary A. Porteus and Miss Isabel Mitchell. Nov. 15, Mrs. Fred M. Smith, Mrs. George K. Nason, Mrs. Roland B. Jordan, Mrs. James P. Bath, Mrs. Harold F. Taylor, Mrs. Raymond A. Parker, Mrs. Theodore R. Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Hardman, Mrs. Louis Church, Mrs. Kenneth N. Hillhouse, Mrs. George F. Taylor and Mrs. Warren T. Bennett, and Mrs. Burton Bartlett of Hartford.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used to decorate the uncheon table and a big blossom was attached to each place card. The luncheon menu was:

Cream of Tomato Soup
Salted Nuts
Chicken Patties
Fried Potatoes
Green Peas
Fruit Salad
Assorted Cakes
Coffee

Two things to be remembered and observed today, Armistice day, are the two minutes of silent prayer at noon, and the proper respect for the national emblem as it passes in the parade.

Brief News.

The American Thread Company will close today (Friday) and Saturday, thus completing the list of local manufacturing plants closing for the national holiday.

Mrs. Hormelias Dion entertained on Wednesday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Antoinette Dion, whose marriage with William Gagnon, will take place. Many gifts were received by Miss Dion. A luncheon followed an evening of pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. B. left Thursday for New York, where they leave for Atlantic City for a ten days' stay at the Marlborough-Blenheim.

Miss Sadie McCready, Rev. Harry S. McCready and George W. Taylor, returned to New London Thursday to attend the sessions of the American Missionary Association.

Mrs. Wilbur L. Cross of New Haven is the speaker for the section of the American Missionary Association. Mrs. Gates entertained Thursday afternoon in Mrs. Cross' honor.

Mrs. Leo Denney is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles LeClair, of Hartford. A short service is to be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church today, Armistice day, with litany and special prayers at 11:30. The church bell will be tolled from 11:45 until 12 m.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

At the town meeting held in borough hall this week it was voted to accept the budget presented by the selectmen amounting to $63,542 and the budget of the school board amounting to $60,318. It was also voted to discontinue six different sections of highway in outlying portions of the town. The highways discontinued are as follows: The highway leading from the Bush house on the Water street to the "round house" so called; highway leading from John Bates' to Union road; highway from Gagnon place to the crooked S road; highway from Stafford street to the Westford road; highway from Holland road to be Nathan Agard place; the Ferry Hill road leading from Holland to the Staffordville-Mashapaug road.

The report of the committee appointed last March to secure plans for a memorial building as provided in the will of Col. Charles Warren was read by the selectmen and accepted. The building recommended by the committee is a two-story brick, 114 feet long and sixty feet wide. The first floor will contain the offices of town clerk, selectmen, judge of probate, court room, clerk's office, lockup and room for borough business and one or two rooms to be assigned for such purposes as the selectmen may designate. The second floor will contain an auditorium which will seat 670 people; also a large stage with dressing rooms and two large ante rooms.

It was also voted to authorize the selectmen to negotiate a lease with the Central Vermont Railway Co. for a strip of land 12 feet wide, south of the proposed building.

Miss Helen Gilman has entered the employ of the Anthony Adams Co. Mrs. John Lavine of Yantic is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Lavilla Newton of New York is visiting her brother, John M. Leach. Mrs. L. E. Finney and son, Ed, is the guest of relatives in the borough.

Miss Minna E. Northwick is in New York on business.

Mrs. E. W. Smith has gone to Crescent City, Florida, for the winter. The banks, town clerk's office and pro-

People Who Live In Neighboring Towns

You come to Willimantic for the day—there is much to be bought—rightly and quickly.

Nearly every trip your list contains something we sell and we want the opportunity to give you a sample of our leadership if our label is not already a known friend in your home.

Our qualities—our prices—our newness—our fairness—on every count that counts when you get the goods home we are accountable to your satisfaction.

Please accept this invitation not as advertisement but as the knock on your door by a firm you could safely trust with your diamonds.

WEST KINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eldred of Kingston were callers here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank May entertained at dinner from Boston Saturday and Sunday.

Six members of the West Kingston W. C. T. U. attended the district convention at Westerly Tuesday.

Richard L. Bralow, who is working at Scituate, was home over the week-end.

There were no services at Walcott's corner church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson and Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon were callers at Hope Valley Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bristow and family were visitors at Narragansett Pier Sunday afternoon.

Thomas Knowles, who hurt his hand badly a couple of weeks ago, returned to high school Monday.

A family quarrel moved into the Wells house, about a mile from Walcott's corner church.

HEBRON

Miss Mildred Hough and Miss Ruth Griffin were home from Hartford for the week-end.

Mrs. E. T. Smith entertained friends from West Springfield Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Seymour and Miss Eunice Seymour were in Middletown Friday. Among Willimantic visitors Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hilding, Mrs. R. F. Porter, Roger Porter and Herbert Porter.

Next Sunday evening the service will be special for Armistice day. The ex-service men are expected to be present and to come in uniform.

Miss Florence Smith was home from Middletown this week. She was from East Hampton for the week-end.

The members of the L. A. S. have been invited to meet with Mrs. Melissa Jones this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Tucker and friends from East Hartford were guests of Mrs. F. A. Burnham over Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Seymour was in New London a few days this week attending the conference of Congregational churches. Rev. Howard Champe and Mrs. Champe and Mrs. C. D. Way of Gilead attended also.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Madison.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Arthur Seranton are visiting in Meriden. About the 15th of the month they will leave for Limona, Fla., for the winter.

Norfolk.—In the September and October report of the Norfolk library it is noted that in those months 4,114 books were in circulation.

South Manchester.—Mrs. R. K. Anderson, who directed the community chorus during the season of 1920-21, was appointed to take charge Tuesday night at a meeting of the chorus committee at the school street recreation center. Rehearsals will commence as soon as music is procured.

Marlborough.—William H. Richmond of Marlborough, a native of Marlborough, reached the age of 100 years Oct. 22. Mr. Richmond accumulated a large fortune in coal operations and since his retirement from active business has traveled widely.

Saybrook.—The Beach mansion at Saybrook, recently sold at auction, was purchased by Gilbert Pratt of New York, a former resident of Old Saybrook. The purchase price for the estate and 25 acres of land adjoining was $43,500. It is rumored that one of the large New York yacht clubs is desirous of procuring the place for a clubhouse.

Durham.—At an early hour one morning recently, Clifford C. Clark was disturbed from his slumbers by a noise among his chickens at the henery.

People Who Live In Neighboring Towns

You come to Willimantic for the day—there is much to be bought—rightly and quickly.

Nearly every trip your list contains something we sell and we want the opportunity to give you a sample of our leadership if our label is not already a known friend in your home.

Our qualities—our prices—our newness—our fairness—on every count that counts when you get the goods home we are accountable to your satisfaction.

Please accept this invitation not as advertisement but as the knock on your door by a firm you could safely trust with your diamonds.

WEST KINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eldred of Kingston were callers here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank May entertained at dinner from Boston Saturday and Sunday.

Six members of the West Kingston W. C. T. U. attended the district convention at Westerly Tuesday.

Richard L. Bralow, who is working at Scituate, was home over the week-end.